

stryker

Operations Leadership Program

Salt Lake City, UT
GGO Neurovascular

Salt Lake City – GOO Neurovascular Operations Leadership Program

Salt Lake City's Operations Leadership Program is designed specifically for highly talented individuals who are looking for an accelerated career progression in manufacturing operations and leadership. This program develops world-class engineers through three 8 month challenging rotational assignments, high visibility, team projects, training and development, and formal coaching and mentoring programs.

Program Overview

Rotations

Engineering (Quality, Manufacturing, Industrial), Line Supervisor, Supply Planning or Project Mgmt./New Product Introduction

Position Commitment

Full-time hires

Site Visits

Kalamazoo, MI & Fremont, CA

Presentation to senior leaders

End of each rotation & End of program

Duration

24 months – Starts in September
Three 8 month rotations

Levels

Program hire as Engineer.
Graduates promoted to Sr. Engineer

Events

Product Showcases
Networking
Meet with senior leaders

Placement

Salt Lake City upon graduation

Career link

<http://careers.stryker.com>

Requirements for Rotational Program

- Undergraduate or Graduate degree in Engineering Discipline (Mechanical, BioMed, other engineering)
- 3.0 minimum GPA
- Eligibility to work in US

Benefits to Graduates

- Escalated career progression

- Learn about stroke care
- Hands on experience with high visibility projects and initiatives

- Assignment as a direct supervisor with close mentoring

- Exposure to multiple product lines, Stryker businesses
- Develop and leverage strengths

<https://www.stryker-careersblog.com/post/6-reasons-to-join-stryker-in-salt-lake-city-ut>

Networking Groups

Competency Areas

Stryker's African American Network

Stryker's Women's Network

Stryker's Allies for Equality

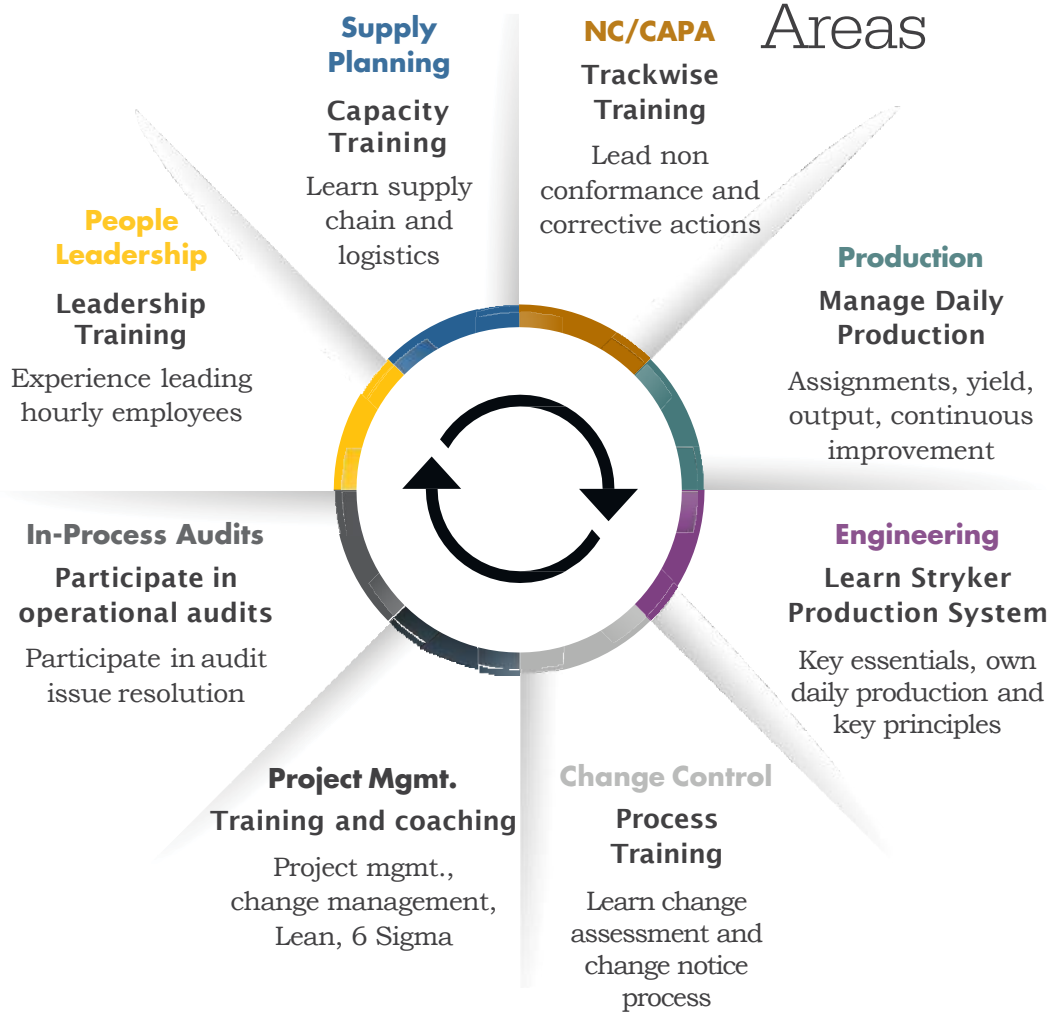

Stryker's Emerging Professionals

Women in Stryker's Engineering

Stryker's Veterans Association (SVA)

Stryker

Salt Lake City, Utah Facility

stryker

4870 West 2100 South
Salt Lake City, UT 84120

www.stryker.com